KRAZY KAT - "GOLD BRICKS"

Produced by
Charles B. Mintz

Distributed by
Paramount Famous Lasky Corp.

Krazy Kat and his rival both try to win the dancer's love in a Klondike cabaret. She tells them she will marry the one who brings back the largest nugget of gold.

They both set out. The rival in a fast sled with a team of huskies, Krazy Kat on a sick horse who immediately proceeds to catch cold when he steps into a puddle of water. This delays the feline but he finally succeeds in reaching the gold fields where his rival has had a great start on him. Krazy Kat, having no tools, induces his horse by dropping oats on the ground to dig holes for him.

The rival finds a large nugget of gold and rushes back to the girl. Krazy Kat, realizing he must hurry back too and not having any gold, decides to paint a large rock with gold paint. He gets back to the cabaret and presents the false gold nugget to the girl. She accepts him. The rival cries and his tears fall on the gold nugget washing off the paint. He shows it to the girl and she throws Krazy Kat over and marries the other.
